Rolling away the stone

Think of the burdens we carry in our lives: the memories that stir pain, the grief that lasts, ill health, worries about family, bereavement and many other things. In the loving power of God, in sharing faith and difficulties with others, in the real hope that God is always near, our stones are rolled away. In love Jesus rolls away our stones.

A stone often has a crack and a little flower can grow through it.

Through cracks in the stones of our lives, light and healing break through. The women at the tomb realized that morning that love was around them.

It just took a while to believe.

It can be the same for us.

May the Risen Jesus of Easter continue to open up spaces of hope and healing in our lives.

St. Ignatius of Loyola

They say that every crisis presents an opportunity. This was certainly the case for Saint Ignatius of Loyola (1491-1556), a soldier from Basque Spain, who was wounded in battle on 20 May 1521. His long convalescence proved to be a decisive turning point in his life. Ignatius observed that, while worldly successes would bring fleeting happiness, his deepest fulfilment could only be found in God.
Hence the motto of the Society of Jesus (Jesuits) that he founded:
Ad majorem Dei gloriam. Everything about his life would be 'to the greater glory of God'. Ignatius believed that God has a specific calling for each person.

His Spiritual Exercises (1548) invite us to dispose ourselves to God's will.
We can do that when we face a major decision, and even daily, as we review each day's events.

Lord, may all that I do give you glory.
Amen.

There will be an Annual Cemetery Mass said at Ladychapel Cemetery, Maynooth
on Friday 21st June at 7.30pm for all who wish to attend.
