Prayer of St. Patrick

Christ be near at either hand

Christ behind, before me stand

Christ with me where e'er I go

Christ around, above, below

Christ be in my heart and mind,

Christ within my soul enshrined.

Christ control my wayward heart.

Christ abide and ne'er depart.

Christ my life and only way.

Christ my lantern, night and day.

Christ be my unchanging friend.

Guide and Shepherd to the end.

Amen

Thought for the Week

Travel lightly, happiness is inclined to get lost in the luggage.

Many thanks to all who contributed € 1,389.00 to the Parish Benevolent Fund Church Collection which helps people at times of exceptional need.

Whether you are deeply religious or secular there is room for wonder.

I love the line from Patrick's Kavanagh's poem 'Raglan Road', where he invites you to walk along 'the enchanted way'. Maybe the nature of religious expression is changing - it might be moving away from its largely institutional identity into something more personal.
Belief may have a greater element of choice rather than the heavy - handed impositions of the past.
Enchantment invites people to acknowledge that science and religion are not opposing forces but are common hosts on the path towards enchantment.

Mary

Following in her footsteps, you will not lose your way; Praying to her You will not despair; Thinking about her, You will not be deluded. If she takes you by the hand you will not fall; If she guides you, You will not know fatigue; If she is with you, You will reach your destination. Amen
(St. Bernard of Clairvaux)
